For our Wildly Popular New Baltimore Scarecrow Contest

Downtown New
Baltimore, MI

Ride the Wave Committee

And

New Baltimore Recreation Department

And

New Baltimore

Downtown Development Authority (DDA)

Scarecrows will be displayed FOR VOTING AT DOWNTOWN NEW BALTIMORE BUSINESSES, from October 23rd through November 22nd, 2016

Scarecrows must be picked up November 27th. They will be located along the outside wall of the New Baltimore Rec Center. Any scarecrows that have not been claimed by November 27th at noon will be the property of the DDA and Ride the Wave Committee.

The Ride the Wave Committee and the New Baltimore Recreation Department, with help from the Downtown Development Authority (DDA), will be entering a joint venture for our popular, annual Scarecrow Contest. (Yes, it's been awhile, but we are back)! Any individual, group or business can enter the contest for an entry fee of $10.00 per entry.

The Scarecrows will be displayed along Washington & Green, affixed to the lamp posts.

Official rules and regulations

1. Fill out an entry form --- return with a check or money order for $10.00 (made payable to Ride The Wave), along with your scarecrow to the former Stahl's Bakery, 51005 Washington St., New Baltimore, on Tuesday, October 10, and on Wednesday, October 11, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 p.m. each night, and Saturday, October 21, from 9:00 am to Noon. A number will be assigned to your scarecrow at this time.
2. A written description of your entry and title must accompany your OFFICIAL SCARECROW COMPETITION ENTRY BLANK. DDA and Ride the Wave reserves the right to refuse a scarecrow entry which we feel may be offensive to the general public.
3. Scarecrows must be erected on a 2 X 4 post. The Scarecrow cannot be taller than 5'7". Scarecrows may not touch the ground; no materials may be put on the ground around the scarecrow. DDA and Ride the Wave will secure scarecrow for you at a location downtown.
4. In order to qualify for displaying and judging, your scarecrow MUST BE WEATHER-RESISTANT. DDA and Ride the Wave reserves the right to remove any scarecrow that does not hold up to the natural elements.
5. NO PERISHABLE GOODS may be used in the construction of your scarecrow (pumpkins, squash, etc)
6. DDA and Ride the Wave ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE for scarecrows on display.
7. Your scarecrow should be dropped off at the former Stahl's Bakery, 51005 Washington St., New Baltimore. A number will be assigned to your scarecrow at this time.
8. There will be VOTING BOXES at the Downtown businesses listed below. Votes will be counted for each category, and WINNERS will be announced at the Indoor Pavilion at Walter and Mary Burke Park on Saturday, November 25th, at 11:00 am and posted at Recreation Center website by November 27th.
9. Scarecrows must be picked up November 27th, from the outside wall at the New Baltimore Rec Center. Any scarecrows that have not been claimed by November 27th at noon, will be the property of the DDA and Ride the Wave Committee.
10. DDA and Ride the Wave reserves the right to photograph entries for any promotional purpose. Photographs become the property of DDA and Ride the Wave Committee
11. Everyone is invited to join in the fun. Applications will be available at the New Baltimore Rec Center, and on their website, at: www.cityofnewbaltimore.org/recreation.asp

We will have three categories:

1. A traditional Scarecrow –

- ◇ Create a traditional scarecrow. Use materials that have been used on functional scarecrows in fields and gardens for centuries ... and do it with your own creativity.

2. The Children's Scarecrow:

- ◇ Children 12 and under – use your own imagination and make a scarecrow you think would scare off all the blackbirds.

3. An Abstract Scarecrow

- ◇ Construct a creative piece that gives an awesome effect in the garden - using non-traditional materials – i.e., aluminum, tin, steel, etc.
